

Of all your memories of Girl Scouts that you will have in the years to come, it will be the fun times you had “making new friends and keeping the old” that mean the most. Many of those fond memories will be of times spent around a campfire, singing camp songs, roasting marshmallows, and sharing friendships.

(written by Margaret Bauer, MN0400, for the GLSU Encampment, Elk River, Minnesota, April 2006)

"We carry our friendship with us in these ashes from campfires with other comrades in other lands. May the joining of the dead fires with the leaping flames symbolize once more the unbroken chain that binds Scouts and Guides around the world. With greetings from Scouts and Guides everywhere."

Ashes taken from a campfire are sprinkled into the flames of the next campfire. The next morning, when the ashes are cold, they are stirred and each Scout takes some along to mix with her next campfire. If more than one Scout brings ashes to the same campfire, the lists are pooled, with the dates and places of all campfires recorded and passed on. It is traditional that only those present at the ceremony carry away ashes from that ceremony.

(It is traditional that only those present at the ceremony carry away the ashes from that ceremony)

We carry our fellowship with us in these ashes from other campfires with other comrades in other lands. May the joining of the den fires with the leaping flames symbolize once more the unbroken chain that binds Scout and Guides around the world.

These ashes have been carried by Scouts and Guides around the world and have come from campfires in:
